We Mourn the Loss of Profits.

GREAT FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR

SALE OF CLOTHING

We are going to make some improvements in our store room after January 1st. The contract is signed and sealed with the contractors—consequently we are compelled to sell our stock or pack it away. We prefer selling it at a sacrifice.

NOTHING RESERVED.

Every suit of Clothes, every Overcoat, every Pair of Pants marked in plain figures. We will just split them in half. This means 50 cents on the dollar. The cheapest sale of fine ready made Clothing in Kentucky.

Our business is not conducted by fakes and guessing schemes. The man that's selling watch chains on the street corner for $1, throwing in a watch just to show his generosity, needs watching. "Bunco Stealers," "Rattle Dazzle" tricksters and green goods sharps always promise great returns from small investments. Intelligent minds are on to the racket, and take no stock in such humbuggery. 'Tis value they want.

100 CENTS WORTH OF GOODS

FOR 100 CENTS IN CASH

Is what we give the people. But at this sale

100 CENTS WORTH AT 50 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR!

Every article in our establishment is ticketed at the lowest price possible. The stamp of durability is on every garment.

If you have not dealt with us, ask your neighbor, who has. We invite you to our store, feeling assured that you will be pleased with our garments and satisfied with the matchless values we offer.

LEE COUNTY.

Doings at Beattyville Chronicled by "One of the Boys."

Some fifteen or twenty years ago Capt. David Hogan moved with his family to this county. About twelve or fifteen years ago he brought suit against his wife, Mary C. Hogan, alleging as his cause of action an uncontrollable temper, upon which he was granted a divorce. Not long after obtaining the divorce he married a Miss Mann, with whom he lived until some time last April, when she died. Last Friday there was issued a marriage license to David Hogan and Mary C. Hogan, (his first wife, from whom he had been divorced fifteen years), and they are again man and wife. They are the father and mother of three or four grown sons and daughters, and the grandfather and grandmother of several children. Capt. Hogan is a prominent Republican of this county, and is as clever a gentleman as can be found anywhere, and it is to be hoped that the vorage of this "second union" may be one of unbroken peace.

Leary year seems to be having its effect upon the whole county. There's nothing like it.

Married, at the residence of Thomas J. Phillips and wife, in West Beattyville, last Thursday evening, at 3 o'clock p. m., Mr. Edward Dunn and Miss Lucinda Phillips were united in matrimony, Father Jones, of the Catholic Church, Mt. Sterling, officiating. The beautiful ceremony was performed in an elegantly decorated room, which had been artistically arranged for the occasion. Immediately after the marriage ceremony and congratulations, the host of friends who had gathered there to witness this celebrated event were then served with a sumptuous repast. Mr. Dunn is one of our most prominent young men, and his lovely bride one of the most charming belles of our city. We extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple, and invoke upon them the blessings of peace, happiness and abundant prosperity through life.

John C. Steele and Miss Mary J. Newton, of this city "stole a march" on their friends Thursday evening, and were married at the residence of Thomas Jamison in the presence of a few friends. May they live long, happily and prosperously.

Thursday was not much of a good day for marrying, but, nevertheless, Beattyville boasts of three weddings. "Can't head us." The new Presbyterian Church on East Main street is being rapidly constructed. The Three Forks Lumber Company is having a large storehouse erected on its mill property fronting Lumber street. This Company is operating its mill.

BEATTYVILLE, Feb. 29, '92. HYPHEN.

CARLISLE'S CHOICE.

Expressions of Members as to Their Presidential Favorite.

A crowd of members of the General Assembly were standing on the State-house steps in the bright sunshine recently, when politics, an ever-interesting topic was brought up. A poll was taken to see who their preference was for Presidential nominee, with the following result:

Senator Clark said: I am for Carlisle, with any other good man for second choice.

Mr. Edmiston: I am for Carlisle and Boies.

Lieut.-Gov. Alford: I am for Carlisle and Hill, and have a patent on the ticket.

Senator Board: I am for Carlisle and Boies.

Dr. Woods: Watterson and Gray are my candidates.

W. H. May: Cleveland and Gray.

Senator Mulligan: Carlisle and Boies or Russell.

Senator Anderson: I am for Carlisle and Boies.

Mr. Ayres: Carlisle.

Mr. Stephenson: Carlisle first, Cleveland second.

Mr. Garrison: Carlisle and Boies or Russell.

Mr. Dean: Carlisle first. With him out, I am for Flower if Hill and Cleveland cannot agree.

Speaker Moore, of the House: I have always been and still will be a Carlisle man.

Senator Wortham: Carlisle.

Senators Daum and Downer (Republicans) are for Harrison.

Mr. Shouse: Cleveland first, Carlisle second.

Mr. Halbert: Carlisle, Boies or Palmer.

Sudden Death of Senator Hargis.

A letter received by Mr. J. Green Trimble yesterday morning from his nephew, W. O. Mize, Enrolling Clerk of the Senate, conveys the sad intelligence of the sudden death of Senator Hargis. We quote from the letter: "I regret to inform you of the sudden death of Senator Hargis, which occurred at 5:30 this morning, after a brief illness, beginning yesterday at 10 a. m. The cause was cholera morbus, and neither Mr. Hargis nor his friends apprehended any danger until about midnight, when his mind began to wander. The remains will be conveyed to Jackson in charge of a Legislative escort, leaving here tomorrow (Monday) at 10:10 a. m. Mr. Morrow (Monday) at 10:10 a. m. Mr. Morrow (Monday) at 10:10 a. m. Mr. Morrow (Monday) at 10:10 a. m."

KENTUCKY SINCE THE WAR,

And Its Loyalty to the Union During that Bloody Struggle.

The Northern people have never been able to understand what became of the Union party in Kentucky at the close of the war. It vanished with a suddenness and completeness that bent any of the tricks of magician Hermann, and in its stead appeared an overwhelming majority for the party that had in Northern minds become identified with Southern sympathy—the Democracy. They have never been able to understand that, as Kentucky's proposed neutrality at the beginning of the war showed her the most thoughtful, deliberate, cool-headed and logical of the States at that trying time, so her political attitude at its close displayed the clearest understanding and the most liberal acceptance of its results.

When the war ended, it ended, as far as Kentucky was concerned, I am proud of many things in the history of this pioneer Commonwealth, but of none am I prouder than that Kentucky's voice was the first to cry "peace" and "pardon" when the guns ceased to thunder and the sabres were sheathed. There was no lingering bitterness here, and the Union men who had held the State in line were in advance of all other States, and in advance of Congress, in extending a general amnesty to the returning Confederates. All honor to the Union men of Kentucky. No people ever gave a grander exhibition of magnanimity than did they when, with the State government in their hands, they wiped from the statute books every trace of war legislation, and restored to full citizenship the men who for principle's sake had been in arms against the policy of the State.

It was an example that was thrown away on the North—not in its returning soldiers—but on its stay-at-home politicians, whose hatred against the South rose higher as the Confederacy crumbled, and who had entrenched themselves in power while others were fighting the country's battles. They lost sight of their earlier claim that the South could not leave the Union, and when the South lay helpless they treated it as no longer a part of the Union. Waging a war to prevent secession, they grounded their reconstruction policy on a theory that the South had seceded and was no longer in the Union, but had to be re-admitted to Statehood as the North saw fit.

To the magnanimous Union men of Kentucky—of a State whose socialities were with the South—this theory and procedure were repulsive. Logically, they held that the South had never left the Union. They had fought to keep it in, and were not disposed to deny their own victory in order to feed a vicious grudge. They resented, too, the policy of treating Kentucky, a Union State, as if she had seceded. The tyranny of Palmer and Burbridge and the Federal authorities was resented as an unwarrantable interference with the rights of a State that was as much a Union State as Massachusetts. These things drove many of the returning Union soldiers and Union men of Kentucky into the Democratic party, because in this State that party represented the logical acceptance of the result of the war, and there they have remained ever since.

And that was the great vanishing act that made Kentucky overwhelmingly a Democratic State, and so confused the Northern mind as to Kentucky's attitude toward the Union that Mr. Carlisle is to-day not considered an "available" candidate for the Presidency because a river divides his home from the State of Ohio.

It is about time Kentucky was getting credit for her loyalty, if loyalty is to continue a factor in politics when all are loyal. Instead of laying it out against Mr. Carlisle that he is from this side of the Ohio, if there is any sincerity in this loyal business at the North—and there isn't for it is all political humbug to extinguish a rising Presidential possibility—he should rather be rewarded. Had it not been for such men as Mr. Carlisle, Kentucky and Missouri and Maryland might have made a different story of the war—Morgan, in Owensboro Inquirer.

HE WAS TOO ANXIOUS.

Hack-Driver Graham Arrested Because of His Greediness to Get Passengers.

Hugh Graham, a hack driver, is in trouble because of alleged unscrupulous means which he resorted to in securing passengers. When the train came into the First-street depot at 6 o'clock one day last week, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Fallon, of Daysborough, were among the passengers. They had a ticket to Fayetteville, Ark., and attached to it was a check which would enable them to be transferred free of charge from the First street to the Fourteenth street depot. Mr. Fallon says he asked Graham where the transfer vehicle was. Graham told him that he was the man in charge and to step into his carriage. When they arrived at the Fourteenth street depot Graham said he had nothing to do with the check, and wanted two dollars. Fallon refused to pay this, and the hack driver tried to take his valise. The depot-master interfered, and Capt. Haggar arrested Graham on the charge of disorderly conduct. Capt. Haggar says such complaints are becoming too numerous and he will make a test case of this. Mr. Fallon and his wife agreeing to remain in the city to prosecute Graham. It has not been long since an aged woman who was traveling alone was treated in a like manner by a hack driver, but as she left the city the case was dismissed in court.—Courier-Journal.

DEMOCRATIC WIGWAM.

The Convention Hall Will Seat 20,000 People.

The wigwam in which the sessions of the Democratic National Convention will be held will be sufficiently large to seat 20,000 people. At least that is the understanding that has been reached by the local committee having in charge the erection of the structure. According to the agreement which has been reached with the representatives of the National Committee, Chicago is to have one-fifth of the admission tickets. The original agreement called for seats for 15,000 persons, but the local Democrats desire more than the 3,000 seats they would obtain under this arrangement, so they have decided to increase the size of the building. A design will be selected within a week, and the erection of the wigwam commenced almost immediately thereafter. It is thought that it will be located on the lake front north of the old exposition building.

CLEVELAND.

Frank Hurd Declares that the Ex-President is in the Race.

Hon. Frank H. Hurd, of Toledo, Ohio, has announced that he will be a candidate for delegate-at-large from Ohio to the National Democratic Convention, and if so appointed he will place Grover Cleveland in nomination before that body. He also says that there will be, within a few days, a conference of leading Ohio Democrats, including ex-Gov. Campbell and Congressman Harter, to organize the party for Cleveland and tariff reform against free coinage. Mr. Hurd went to Ann Arbor on the 22d to meet Mr. Cleveland, and announces authoritatively that the latter is a candidate for the Democratic nomination.

May Take the Midland.

It is rumored that the L. & N. has purchased the Kentucky Midland, and will, at an early date, begin building it through Bath and Bourbon counties, and on through the mountains to Pound Gap.

It is not generally believed that the deal has been consummated, but there seems little doubt that negotiations are pending. The citizens of the counties through which the Midland passes are doing all in their power to get the L. & N. railroad to take hold of it. Unless the L. & N. can see a way to make money out of the purchase, however, it is scarcely probable that it will be induced to take the property.

HAZEL GREEN HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, - - - Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:
FRIDAY, : March 4, 1892.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 26, '92.

The World's Fair has fairly divided honors with the political situation and the prospects of the free coinage bill, as conversational subjects, since the return of the Congressional visitors to Chicago. That city never did a shrewder thing than to plan that excursion, which has already done more to open the eyes of Senators and Representatives to the magnitude and importance of the undertaking than could have been accomplished in many months by any other method. As a specimen of its effect, hear what Senator Peffer says: "The work was on a grander scale than I expected it to be, and the arrangements much more elaborate. More work had been done than I looked for. The plan and its general arrangements—the scope of the exposition—has grown upon the management. To put it plainly, it is bigger than they expected. To carry it out as it should be carried out will require a great deal of money—more than has been arranged for—and additional funds will have to be provided. The country generally is just beginning to realize the greatness of the enterprise, and it seems to me that all thinking people must be enlisted to make the affair a success. The Fair must neither be defeated nor dwarfed."

The prospects of the free coinage bill have not materially changed since last week, although the number of people who regard its passage by the House as certain is constantly increasing. The Democrats held a caucus last night, and while no iron-clad agreement was entered into, it is believed that a resolution will shortly be reported from the Committee on Rules assigning a date for the consideration of the free coinage bill, and that the date will be immediately after the disposal of the first tariff bill, which is to be taken up next week.

Rain-maker Drenforth has been a little slow in reporting how he spent the eight or ten thousand dollars appropriated by the last Congress for experiments in trying to produce rain by artificial methods, and what he accomplished therewith; so, this week, Senator Sherman offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling upon the Secretary of Agriculture for a copy of the report made by Drenforth. It is believed that the resolution was prepared by request of Secretary Rusk, who has not received any report from the alleged rain-maker. Secretary Rusk has from the first taken pains to let it be known that he was in no manner responsible for Drenforth's experiments, which, although nominally conducted under the auspices of the agricultural department, were in reality entirely independent of that department, being conducted under a special act of Congress carrying the necessary appropriation. It is understood that Drenforth's report will claim that the experiments were entirely successful, and will ask for a larger appropriation to continue them.

Senator Stewart, speaking on the joint resolution for the holding of an international bi-metallic conference, said that the parity of gold and silver could not be maintained in that way, nor in any other way, except by treating them both precisely alike as money metals. He gave notice that he would propose an amendment to that effect before the resolution was voted on.

Senator George, of Mississippi, knows how to do a manly act in a graceful way. He made a statement on the floor of the Senate this week in which he acknowledged that he found upon examination that he had made an erroneous statement, in a speech made last week, as to the disposition of the $90,000,000 of legal tender notes issued under the act of 1890. He also referred to the words "conditions arising from the local conditions surrounding Senators in this city," which he said contained an implication unjust to others and to himself that was not intended. To make his explanation all the stronger he added: "During my service in the Senate I have never had occasion to believe that any Senator gave support to any measure from other motives than a conscientious conviction of the public good." Senator Sherman's resolution, which was adopted by the Senate, calling upon the President for the particulars of the recent conference with the Canadian Commissioners concerning reciprocity has started lots of gossip, and everybody wants to know why, if there was nothing in the conference, as was unofficially given out at the time, the Senator offered his resolution.

Congress has not recovered from the effects of its excursion to Chicago, consequently it has been unusually dull for several days past. Mr. Harrison and his family have gone to Virginia Beach for a week's rest, which it is impossible for them to get in Washington.

Representative Springer, who has been classed as a Cleveland man, has come out for Hill, whose Presidential boom is rushing things just now in Congressional circles.

WOLFE COUNTY. Canton Currency.

Ho, for Texas!
Willie, son of J. P. Hall, is very sick with pneumonia.

G. T. Center has gone to Mt. Sterling and other points on business.
Uncle Jerry Elkins and Elijah Collins, of Bear Pen, have moved to town.

J. C. Lykins is at Clay City on business connected with the K. U. R. R.
Porter Crain, who is attending school at this place, went Byrd hunting Saturday.

C. M. Hanks, Sr., and T. J. Swinn are very low, and their recovery is extremely doubtful.

Clyde, son of Dr. J. H. Stamper, who has been very low with fever, is slowly recovering.

A. C. Byrd is preparing to build a residence near his son, A. J. Byrd, in the near future.

Isaac Elkins sold his residence and lands in Campton for $1,800, C. C. Hanks being the purchaser.

I can't understand (Wyatt) why it is that James Hauley is always so smiling and pleasant here of late.

The post office will soon be moved to the storehouse formerly occupied by Isaac Elkins, now owned by W. B. Duff.

J. Mason Cantrell, who purchased the Samuel Napier farm near this place, has arrived with his family to take possession.

Samuel Amys, of Clay City, was here a few days ago, looking after his rural interests. Sam is very fond of a certain flower called Rose.

C. C. Hanks left this place Sunday for Louisville with three small children of the late G. W. Cox, who will enter the Masonic Home at that place.

W. F. Elkins did not start to Texas as he anticipated. He will be detained here a few days on account of the illness of one of his children, but will leave as soon as his child gets able to travel.

George W. Drake arrived here yesterday with Thomas Cummins in charge, who stands indicted in the Circuit Court for malicious cutting and wounding. Tom gave bond for his appearance at the next term and went back to Stanton to-day.

Hon. J. C. Lykins, G. W. Lovelace, B. H. Holton, Wm. Burton and Jonas Vansant, of this place, went to Jackson last week and passed through the trying ordeal of being made Odd Fellows. The boys seem to be pretty much the same as ever, and do not look any more odd than usual. They have applied for a charter, and will in a few days organize a lodge here.

Forty-five men, women and children from this and Morgan county left this place yesterday for Greer county, Texas. Among the number was Isaac Elkins, David Hogg, Samuel Napier and John M. Cockerham, Jr., together with their families of this place. The absence of these people will be sadly felt by the people of this section, among whom they have lived for years. Their friends and relatives, who are legion, wish them abundant success in their new homes.

March 1, '92. REPORTER.

WE WANT 1,000 doz. eggs at 10c. We want your country produce. We want your surplus cheese, and we want to sell you goods cheaper than anybody.

H. F. PIERATT & Co.

MORGAN COUNTY.

As the weather is now opening up so that people from the country can attend, the time of meeting for Sunday-school at this place has been changed to 10 o'clock a. m. Also at the same time and place there will be communion service conducted by the officers of the church. Everybody is invited to attend, and especially church members. The officers of the church being present every Sunday, the opportunity will be offered to those who wish to join the church, acknowledge their faults, or take membership in the church at this place. While this plan may seem new to some, it is nevertheless certainly Apostolic, and is therefore one of the "old paths," and we intend to walk therein, hoping that by united and continued effort all may be edified and the church become strong at last.

We did not know until last Saturday night that we had a man in town with a principle so rusty that he would sell his morality for two dollars, but such is the case, and for this paltry sum permitted a crowd of "shin-diggers" to conduct a regular "hoe-down" in his house till a late hour, and at the same time Holly Nickell's wife, who lives in sight of town, was then and is yet lying at the point of death. This was all done to tantalize, and against the earnest protest of the good citizens of town. Such conduct, under the circumstances, will not soon be forgotten, "for that which a man soweth that shall he also reap," and if young people show disrespect and disregard, they may in some way expect to reap the same.

The news of the loss caused by the recent fire at Hazel Green will be met with much regret all over the country, for the accommodations furnished by the dormitory was a great help to the education interests of the country, and in this connection we wish to say to the members of the church at Hazel that we are owing Bro. Combs a balance on his services for preaching last year, and as he has suffered a heavy loss by this fire, the members are requested to call at A. T. Pieratt's store and cast in their mite without delay.

Hugh Blankenship, who lived a few miles below here, having been in ill health for some time, recently became crazy, and was last week by the proper authorities pronounced a lunatic and sent to the asylum.

G. W. Goad has rented his farm to Lee Carr, and will locate with his father-in-law, J. W. Henry, in the flat woods.

Harlan Easterling and a daughter of Richard Sexton's was married last week. G. B. Swango was in town last week. March 1, '92. BLURT.

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp "The Rochester." If the lamp-dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.

Do You Need Money?

If so, you can get something better than dollars from us. The completion of the K. U. R. R. to Jackson has cut us off from a large wholesale trade heretofore had by us in several counties east, and left on our hands an immense stock of goods, which we are compelled to unload, and in order to do so we are determined to make prices do the work, prices which will make our patrons happy and make competition hard. We offer to Country Merchants extra inducements, and guarantee to them lower prices than they ever got before. We are overstocked and must unload. Remember we will duplicate any bill, with freights added, either wholesale or retail, east or west, north or south, up hill or down. We are now receiving such lines, bought for cash at bottom bargains, as will fill every department. New, fresh, seasonable, choice and cheap. We can astonish you with John D. Coney has moved to Ky. in Morgan county.

Mrs. Rilda Day is quite sick, and has been confined to her home since Sunday.

Miss Ellen McGuire, of St. Helens, is visiting her brother, F. McGuire, of this place.

Nothing equals Ayer's Sarsaparilla for purifying the blood, and as a spring medicine.

Miss Mollie Douglas, late music teacher at the Academy, left Sunday morning for Lexington.

Wanted—A few choice bacon hams at this office at $5c. a pound in cash, or 10c. a pound on subscription.

We learn that Alex Hargis will succeed to the vacancy in the State Senate caused by the death of H. H. Hargis.

We are in receipt of a letter from John Harper, of Georgetown, Texas, but our limited space this week compels us to omit it. For some reason we leave out letters from West Liberty and Bear Pen.

Charley Smith, formerly of this place, who left here to teach school in Powell county, is now clerking for Morton & Congleton, at Bowen Station, in that county. Charley was here on Monday, and paid our office a pleasant call.

Wiley May and wife, late of Olssa, Mo., have rented Floyd Day's property in this place, and are keeping house. Mr. Day will shortly move to Clay City, where his duties as president of the bank and manager of the mill will require his presence at all times.

See the advertisement of the Hazel Green mill in this issue. This mill is now in charge of Potts & Wireman, two practical millers, and the work they are turning out renders entire satisfaction to all. They ground one lot of wheat last week that yielded 35 pounds and another lot which made 40 pounds to the bushel. Not another mill in the country can produce as well, and you can save money by giving it your patronage.

Breeders of this section should read Mr. Treacy's advertisement of Ashland Park Stallions for 1892, and arrange to give him some business. Mr. Treacy will give liberal terms to any farmer in this or the adjoining counties who may wish to breed to his horses, and if owners wish to raise colts that will bring big money they should breed to one of the "four of the finest." Write Mr. Treacy and arrange matters before it is too late. Remember that lost chance never comes again.

W. W. Swango, accompanied by his brother John, of Maytown, paid our office a pleasant call Monday. Wash came up to have some bills printed for his horse, George West, one of the best bred animals in Eastern Kentucky, his being Allie West, bred and owned by B. J. Treacy, of Lexington. Allie West produced some good ones, but died before any of his produce was developed. See bills for a full description of George West, and consult Mr. Swango at Maytown for particulars.

Do not fail to read the advertisement of the Clay City National Bank, which appears in this issue of our paper. Floyd Day, whom every body, in this section knows to be a business man of safe methods, is the President of the institution, and all business from this section will therefore be carefully attended to. Frank Russell, the cashier, is also well known to many of our citizens as an upright gentleman. Those who have money to deposit or loan cannot do better than to patronize this institution.

For Sale or Rent.
35 Acres of Land, 16 cleared; good 3 room dwelling, good barn and necessary out-buildings. Liberal terms. Call on or address, J. M. OLIVER, Franksville, Ky.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

THE HAZEL GREEN ACADEMY HOME IN ASHES.

It Will Be Rebuilt Again at an Early Day—The Residence of Mr. Fletcher McGuire Catches on Fire, but the Flames are Promptly Extinguished.

Just after 1 o'clock on Friday evening smoke was seen to issue from the northern end of the Academy Home, in this place, and almost instantly the cry of fire was heard. Bells all over town were rung, and in a short while all the able-bodied citizens of the place were at the scene of the conflagration. It was apparent from the first that it would be useless to attempt to save the building, and a united effort was therefore made to save the furniture, clothing, etc., but so rapidly did the flames travel in their work of destruction, that even this was only partially successful. In the excitement incident to occasions of this kind, valuable property was left to the hungry flames and herculean efforts made to save articles of less value. This was especially so in one case. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, boarders in the Home, lost nearly everything they had. Mrs. Hughes was among the first to discover the fire, and hurriedly dragged her trunk out of the room onto an upper porch, but not withstanding her appeals for assistance, no one was rendered, and her own and husband's clothing and valuables were totally destroyed. After the fire they recovered fifty or sixty dollars in gold which had melted and partially united, and this was all they saved.

The building, which was valued at $3,500, was laid in ruins, but an insurance of $2,000 will aid in rebuilding, which, we learn, will be commenced at once. The fire and its consequences was a sad blow to Hazel Green, but arrangements have been made by which all boarders attending school can be accommodated without additional outlay, and the fire will therefore in no way interfere with the school, which is now in a most prosperous condition.

The following is a list of losses:
D. C. Combs, $300; no insurance.
T. G. Hughes and wife lost all their clothing, trunks, etc., valued at $350 or $400.
Wm. H. Cord lost books, music, clothing, furniture, etc.; partly insured.
Miss Sallie Neal lost clothing and books.
Mrs. Maggie Elam, books and clothing.
Misses Cassie Rannels and Jennie May, clothing.
Miss Lillie Allen, clothing and $50.
John F. Jones, books and overcoat.
W. L. Hammonds, $22.
D. C. Coney, $20.
W. B. Allen, $14.
E. B. Pieratt, $7.
M. C. Keeton, $35.
Volney Nickell, $50.
E. J. Daniels, $25.
G. P. Orey, $20.
S. G. H. Cord, $20.
There are several others who lose smaller amounts.

ANOTHER FIRE.
On Wednesday morning the alarm of fire was again sounded, when the beautiful residence of Mr. Fletcher McGuire was discovered to be on fire. It was noticed, however, before gaining much headway, and by prompt efforts the flames were subdued. After the burning of the Academy Home Mr. McGuire's residence was rented as a dormitory for the students, and they had just moved in. A decisive blow was the cause of the fire in both cases.

It is hardly necessary to discourse to the citizens of Hazel Green about the destruction that may visit us from the same cause at any time, and warn them to prepare for an emergency, for time and again we have appealed to all justly in vain for an organization to act in such cases. In the case of the Academy Home fire one man could have easily extinguished the flames with a Bate-eek extinguisher. One of these useful fire-fighters can be had for fifty to one hundred dollars, and it remains to be seen whether the town is able to buy one.

Willie Day, son of F. N. Day and wife, is clerking for his uncle, Frank Horton, of Comargo. Willie is an enterprising young man, and, as he likes merchandizing better than any other, he has heretofore engaged in it, we would not be surprised some day to see him at the head of a large mercantile house.

Ben Bluff, Presbyterian evangelist, entertained good congregations at the Presbyterian church in this place Sunday morning and evening, and dwelt at length upon the importance of shunning evil of every kind. Especially did he warn young men "to look not upon the wine that is red."
